ORION CORRESPONDENCE.

OBION, May 20th, 1871. Entrons Angus :- The first excursion train rap over the P. & R. I. R. R. from Orion to Cambridge last evening. Two hundred and twenty-five excursionists left Orion at 4 o'clock P. M., by invitation of Mr. Brown, Superintendent, Conductor Mc Foreign Daniels and Capt. Downs had charge of the train, and a half hours ride over as lover a country as the sun shines upon, and now clothed with laxuriant green, brought NEW YORK. us to the old town of Cambridge, the county seat of Henry county, one of the oldest towns in the county, and the last to get a railroad. The inhabitants seem to have been taking a Rip Van Winkle sleep, that not even the shrill whistle of the locomotive seems yet to arouse them. On the arrival of our train we landed in silence, merched through the streets in silence, and went to the saloons in silence, and drank standing in stlence. No word of welcome was spohea, no spread eagle speeches were made on telegram dated this evening, just received, No. 1. the great event of the arrival of the iron horse in this prosperous village, nor any al-Juston made to the great country in which we live, nor to the great events that are daily transpiring.
